A volunteer driven organization serving the community for over 75 years

The Wentzville Community Club is preparing for the Wabash Days Parade which will take place on the second day of Wabash Days, August 27, 2011. Looking for a way to get new members or promote your group, here's your opportunity by participating in this fun event. The Festival draws 10,000 people to downtown Wentzville with live musical performances, live street performances and demonstrations, carnival rides and games, arts and crafts booths, food booths and much, much more. Join the parade and be an integral part of this event which is reminiscent of old time fairs and street festivals.

Anyone wishing to participate in the parade whether as an individual, organization, or business must complete an entry form and abide by the following rules.

- ❖ Floats must be appropriate for a family atmosphere
- ❖ All entries must be at least 50% decorated. This is an opportunity for you to advertise your business, but it is a parade. Classic cars and motorcycles do not need additional decorations.
- ❖ Floats must be constructed in a safe manner and not present a health or safety hazard to participants or the general public.
- ❖ Please arrive no earlier than 10:30 a.m. prior to the start of the parade.
- ❖ Awards will be given for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners. Floats will be judged on theme, creativity and overall appearance. The decision of the judges is final.
- ❖ Participants may not jump on and off floats once the parade has started.
- ❖ When participants throw candy, it should be thrown by the walkers to the ground away from parade vehicle. DO NOT THROW CANDY IN FRONT OF OR NEAR MOVING VEHICLES!
- ❖ Stay within 20 ft. of the group ahead of you.
- ❖ Be alert! Watch for children running out into the parade route. Watch for the group ahead of you to pause.
- ❖ Any entry with live animals must provide waste removal beginning with unloading of animals, along parade route, and until the animals are reloaded.
- ❖ Replenishing supplies must be done from the back of the float or unit.

Failure to follow Parade guidelines may result in your entry not being permitted to participate in the parade and your group will not be invited to take part in future years.
