Submitting a WE P.L.A.Y. Scholarship application does not guarantee that you will be granted a scholarship. All applications are considered on a case by case basis and granted if funds are available. Based on economic hardship, the department may request that you pay a portion of your program fee. The Parks and Recreation Department reserves the right to decline any application where false or misleading information is provided.

I, _____, certify that the above information is true and correct and that all income is reported. Wentzville Parks and Recreation Department Staff has my permission to verify the information with required agencies.
